PROFESSOR ARTHUR GOODHART, An American who has occupied the Chair of Jurispradence at Oxford since 1931 and who, in addition to being a member of the American Law Institute and a visiting professor at Yale University, is a Vice-President of the Institute international de Philosophie du Droit. has addressed a letter to The Times newspaper on Herr Hitler's responsibilities under International Law in connexion with the dangers of food shortage this winter in German-occupied territories in Europe.

Writing as a neutral American. who is concerned at this position, Professor Goodhart calls upon the less). British Government to make a clear pronouncement to the effect that it will lift the blockade on foodstuffs for enemy-occupied territories "provided the Nazis will evacuate these countries."

He makes the following points. "International Law, which repre sents the moral sense of all civilised countries, has always held it as the primary duty of the occupant of enemy territory to ensure public order and safety in countries he has seized. This is laid down by Article 43 of the Hague Regulations of 1899 and has been accepted by every authority on International Law. The oduty to save from starvation the inhabitants of territories which he occupies, therefore, falls on Hitler and on no one else. "Hitler has repeatedly stated Germany has large reserves of foodstuffs. On this point he probably telling the truth. Why then has he seized food in the countries which he has occupied thus adding materially to the danger of famine there."

Prof. Goodhart finds the answer in the German need of food material, especially fats, for the manufacture of explosives."

"Hitler has announced he will

ASSUMPTION OF BLESSED VIRGIN WORK IN ENGLAND MARY: WAR

THE FEAST OF ASSUMPTION of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which occurs next Thursday, is a Holiday of Obligation - that is, a day on which Catholics are oblised to hear Mass - and one of the most important feasts of this time of the year. It has a special importance in many parts of China because four days are chosen in the year, one in each quarter, for special celebration in each district, and on account of the convenience of the time at which this feast occurs it is chosen as one of the four in many places.

The feast itself commemorates, first, the death of Mary and second a tradition that goes back in the Church to the time of the Apostles, that the body of Mary after her death was taken to heaven. The date of the feast is of uncertain origin, for there is no definite tradition of the day - any more than of the date or the place - of Mary's death.

SEVEN SISTERS. FESTIVAL

CHINESE MAIDENS CELEBRATE

The "Seven Sisters" Festival, which falls on the seventh day of the seventh moon of the lunar calendar, was celebrated enthusiastically yesterday by Chinese maidens in traditional style. Last night the fruit stalls at the different markets of the Colony and Chinese haberdashery and paper shops did a rearing business. Along Wellington Street, Hollywood Road, Lyndhurst Terrace. Hennessy Road, Johnston Road and other streets on the mainland, there were crowds of Chinese women and girls making purchases, while their menfolk wandered about sightseeing

It is believed by the Chinese women and maidens that at midnight on the day of the festival, the "Seven Sisters" will shower blessings upon them, and that is why they assemble together and keep watch throughout the whole

ORIGIN OF FESTIVAL

According to Chinese legends it is recorded that long ago the King of Heavens, who lived with his seven daughters, "noticed a poor cowherd. The youth was most industrious and fillal and as a reward the King decided to give him one of his seven daughters in marriago.

The legend goes on to say that when the cowherd and the daugh-Preacher: Morning and Evening ter of the King of Heavens were wedded, the couple grew to be very lazy. The lad gradually neglected his work because of his infatuation for his wife, while his spouse neglected her weaving.

COUPLE SEPARATED

Their behaviour aroused the displeasure of the good old King who finally separated the couple. They were allowed to see each other only once a year on the seventh day of the seventh moon. Afterwards, the romantic story Social Hour will be held at the says, they were changed from their human form into two brilliant stars, and were separated from each other by the Silvery River or

On the day of days, however, they had permission to cross the river and meet each other, and it is then that the maidens of China offers up prayers and sacrifice in Holy Communion Fellowship the hope that they will be given good and industrious husbands.

War Advisory Council To Be Formed In India

Invitation Extended For Indian Representatives

SIMLA, Aug. 9 (Reuter)—A statement of far-reaching constitutional importance was made by the Viceroy of India yesterday.

"Last "October," said Lord Linlithgow, "His Majesty's Government again made clear that Dominion Status was their objective for India. They added that they were ready to authorise expansion of the Governor-General's Council to include a certain number of representatives of the political parties, and they proposed the establishment of a consultative committee.

"In order to facilitate harmonious co-operation it was obvious that some measure of agreement in the provinces between the major parties was a desirable prerequisite to their joint collaboration at the centre. Such an agreement unfortunately was not reached and in the circumstances no progress was then possible."
